PRESIDENT-ELECT AT NEW ORLEANS

EXPRESS APPROVAL OF LOCK CANAL

Pats in Busy Day—The Wind
Will Be a Big Plus
Baptist This Evening

New Orleans, Feb. 12.—President-elect Wood made his first public appearance here this evening, and was enthusiastically received by the thousands of citizens who gathered to meet him. He arrived in a motor car, and was escorted to the hotel by a large body of police. He was seen to take a happy evening of the city.

Mayor McRae will address the citizens of New Orleans at 8 o'clock, in the presence of a large gathering of citizens. He will pay $10 a minute for the privilege of speaking. He is expected to stay in the city for several days.

The first news of the constitutionality of the canal project, which was announced by the President-elect, was met with great interest by the citizens of New Orleans. They are all anxious to see the project carried out.

The citizens of New Orleans are all anxious to see the project carried out. They are all anxious to see the project carried out. They are all anxious to see the project carried out.
